

UPDATE ON PRIVACY CONTROLS

From Zoom: Please read

We're always striving to deliver you a secure virtual meeting environment. Starting April 5th, we've chosen to enable passwords on your meetings and turn on Waiting Rooms by default as additional security enhancements to protect your privacy.

Meeting Passwords Enabled "On"

Going forward, your previously scheduled meetings (including those scheduled via your Personal Meeting ID) will have passwords enabled. If your attendees are joining via a meeting link, there will be no change to their joining experience. For attendees who join meetings by manually entering a Meeting ID, they will need to enter a password to access the meeting.

Here's how you can do that:

Log in to your account, visit your Meetings tab, select your upcoming meeting by name, and copy the new meeting invitation to share with your attendees. For meetings scheduled moving forward, the meeting password can be found in the invitation. For instant meetings, the password will be displayed in the Zoom client. The password can also be found in the meeting join URL.

Virtual Waiting Room Turned on by Default

Going forward, the virtual waiting room feature will be automatically turned on by default. The Waiting Room is just like it sounds: It's a virtual staging area that prevents people from joining a meeting until the host is ready.

How do I admit participants into my meeting?

It's simple. As the host, once you've joined, you'll begin to see the number of participants in your waiting room within the Manage Participants icon. Select Manage Participants to view the full list of participants, then, you'll have the option to admit individually by selecting the blue Admit button or all at once with the Admit All option on the top right-hand side of your screen
